Tokić Group Assumes Responsibility for Organizing the International Experten Trophy Competition in Croatia

(Other information not constituting regulated information)

Tokić Group successfully organized the first regional round of the Experten Trophy competition in Zagreb, marking the launch of the Croatian edition of this internationally recognized professional competition for automotive technicians, held under the auspices of the global cooperation network ATR International.

By assuming responsibility for organizing the Experten Trophy in Croatia, Tokić Group further reinforces its strategic role in the development of the automotive aftermarket industry and strengthens the transfer of knowledge and technical expertise from manufacturers and suppliers to automotive technicians and service workshops. The competition represents an important component of Tokić Group's educational ecosystem, aimed at enhancing service quality, professional competence, and the competitiveness of Croatian workshops.

Following the first regional round held in Zagreb, the competition will continue in Osijek, Rijeka, and Split, with the top-performing participants qualifying for the national final.
